The moving party must arrange for the service of a true copy of the ex parte order on the friend of the court and the other party within 3 days of the order being issued. An ex parte order is effective upon entry and enforceable upon service.

NOTICE:

1. You may file a written objection to this order or a motion to modify or rescind this order. You must file the written objection or motion with the clerk of the court within 14 days after you were served with this order. You must serve a true copy of the objection or motion on the friend of the court and the party who obtained the order.
2. If you file a written objection, the friend of the court must notify the court to cancel any evidentiary hearing date specified in the ex parte order and try to resolve the dispute. If the friend of the court cannot resolve the dispute, the friend of the court must provide you with form pleadings and written instructions if you wish to bring this matter before the court without assistance of counsel and must reschedule the cancelled evidentiary hearing or schedule a hearing with the court
3. The ex parte order will automatically become a temporary order if you do not file a written objection or motion to modify or rescind the ex parte order. If an evidentiary hearing date is specified in the ex parte order and you do not file a written objection or motion, a hearing will take place on the specified date. If an evidentiary hearing date is specified in the ex parte order and you file a motion, a hearing will take place on the specified date. Even if an objection or motion is filed, the ex parte order will remain in effect and must be obeyed unless changed by a later court order." In all other cases, the ex parte order must state that it will automatically become a temporary order if the other party does not file a written objection or motion to modify or rescind the ex parte order and a request for a hearing. The written objection or motion and the request for a hearing must be filed with the clerk of the court, and a true copy provided to the friend of the court and the other party, within 14 days after the order is served.
